ONTARIO'S GOVERNOR.

Ottawa, May 29.—At a meeting of the executive council yesterday Hon. G. A.

Kirkpatrick was appointed lieutenant-governor of Ontario.

Hon. George Airey Kirkpatrick will be the seventh incumbent of Ontario's gubernatorial office. He is the fourth son of the late Thomas Kirkpatrick, Q.
C., a native of Colmar, near Dublin, Ireland, who represented Frontenac in the Commons from the union until his death, March, 1870. His mother was a daughter of the late Alex. Fisher, judge of the Midland district. He was born at Kingston, in 1841, and was educated at Kingston grammar school, in the high school, St. John's, P. E. I., and at Trinity college, Dublin. He graduated at the latter institution and came out as a silver medalist, December, 1861, and received the degree of B. A. and LL. D.
He became LL. D., June, 1883. He was called to the bar of upper Canada in 1865 and was made a Q. C. in October, 1880.

He is president of the Canada Locomotive works, Kingston, a director of the Kingston & Pembroke railway, also of the C. P. R., and president of the Dominion Express Company. He is a lieutenant-colonel on the list of active militia, a member of the board of visitors to the Royal military college, Kingston, and president of the Dominion Rifle Association. He commanded the Wimbledon rifle team in 1876, and was an honorary commissioner in the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, London, 1886. He was first returned to parliament in April, 1870, as representative of Frontenac, on the death of his father, the sitting member; he was re-elected by acclamation at the general election, 1872; was again returned at the elections, 1874, 1878, 1882, and 1891. He was speaker for the house of Commons from February 8th, 1882, until 1886. He is a Liberal-Conservative in politics.

The late Sir Alex. Campbell was the sixth lieutenant-governor of the Province of Ontario. The first was Lieut. General Situated, from July 1867 to July 1868; second, Hon. W. P. Howland, from July 1868 to November, 1868; third, Hon. J.
W. Crawford, from November, 1873, to May 1875, when he died; fourth Hon. D.
A. Macdonald, from May 1875 to June 1880; fifth, Hon. John Beverley Robertson, from June, 1880, to February, 1887, when he was succeeded by Sir Alexander Campbell. The term of a lieutenant governor is five years.

Our old townsman, Mr. J. B. Parker, of the H. B. Co., has been transferred from Battleford, to the post at Lower Fort Garry.

SIR ALEX. CAMPBELL DEAD.

TORONTO, May 25.—Sir Alex. Campbell Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario, died yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the gubernatorial residence, in this city. The news came upon the city and country with unexpected suddenness, for although his Honor had never recovered from the paralytic stroke which prostrated him last fall he had been able to move round the house, and until about ten days ago had driven out whenever the weather had been favorable. About the end of the week before last, however, he began to lose strength and daily became weaker, although until Monday afternoon those even in constant attendance upon him had no idea that the end was so fast approaching, in fact Mr. Harcourt Vernon, his private secretary, had been engaged most of that day in completing arrangements to remove from Government House next week, when the Governor's term of office would have expired. At 8 o'clock on Monday evening the nurse noticed a change for the worse and at once sent for Dr. Grasett and Mr. Chas. J. Campbell, the dying man's brother. Without apparent change the sick man lay until half past three yesterday, when he suddenly passed away, in the presence of his daughter, Miss Marjory Campbell, Miss Strango (his niece), and Mr. C. J. Campbell. The funeral arrangements are a special service in St. James' Cathedral on Thursday, at 3 p.m., after which the body will be taken to the Union Station and sent to Kingston on the 8:35 train, where it will be interred in Cataract cemetery.

NORTHERN ALBERTA.

A great deal has been written about Northern Alberta, but the Western World, in its May number, is the first publication to illustrate it, which is done in a series of views showing the Edmonton and the Red Deer districts to be charmingly picturesque, beautifully diversified; in fact ideal locations for mixed farming.
The views are really so excellent as to call for more than mere passing notice.
The series begins with a view of the town of Edmonton (taken from the south bank of the Saskatchewan, showing that grand, pretty winding and beautifully wooded stream in the foreground and the town romantically situated on the heights of the north bank. A view of a drift entrance to a coal mine, within the town limits, shows the ease with which the coal is procured. The entrance is on a level with the stream, no pumping or hoisting being required. An important industry, gold washing on the Saskatchewan, is vividly portrayed. Alluvial gold abundance, some $20,000 worth being secured by settlers near the town last season. There are also views of several farms in the Edmonton district, of the principal residences, the Hotel Edmonton, etc. A very able article on the resources of the Edmonton district is contributed by Mr. Frank Oliver, M. L. A. Mr. F.
E. Wilkins, M. L. A., for Red Deer, contributes a very interesting description of this district, illustrated by a pretty view of the Red Deer river and by one in the town of Red Deer. The editor goes on to describe the Calgary and Edmonton railway. These articles and illustrations cannot fail to prove of great advantage to the districts treated of, especially as a wholesale distribution of them is to be made by the town council.

Mr. Michael Davitt's statement that all the provinces except Ontario are immersed in debt is vigorously dealt with by the editor. The East Kootenay district of British Columbia, especially its mineral wealth, is done ample justice to in an article by Mr. Pellev Harvey, of Golden. A description by Dr. Selwyn, director of the geological survey, of his explorations in the Crow's Nest Pass last summer and a mass of miscellaneous matter relating to Manitoba, Northwest Ontario, railway and immigration matters completes a most interesting and valuable issue.

Mr. Burrows announces that his June issue will be largely devoted to the Calgary district of Central Alberta, and that in July he will publish a special summer number for the city of Winnipeg.

Mr. J. Taylor returned from Winnipeg on Tuesday's train.

Aberdeen last fall in company with a large number of South Dakota farmers to examine the agricultural resources of the Canadian Northwest, because owing to the repeated failure of crops and the low price of farm products I found it impossible to make a fair living in Dakota; hence this trip.

"After reaching Winnipeg I went west to Yorkton; from there forty-five miles along the line of railway to Lake St. John. Here I visited the 'South Dakota colony'. Some 200 families settled here during the summer, chiefly from the Aberdeen district, Dakota.

"They are all pleased with their locations, having good soil, plenty of timber for all farm purposes; good water, plenty of hay and grass, fish in the lakes and prairie chickens without limit. Well, after spending a few days looking over the land in which the 'South Dakota colony' are located and finding first class land for mixed farming, and especially for stock, I was well suited with the district that I took up a whole section of land—one quarter for myself, the balance for my three sons, where we intended to make our future homes."

Mr. Gray goes on to describe the clear sunny weather which he encountered, no winds or drifts; and excellent sleighing; lots of horses out all winter making a good living on the prairies and looking splendid in the spring. It was all so different from his Dakota experiences that he seems to have found difficulty in getting over his astonishment. He goes on to advise his friends in South Dakota that the natural resources of the British Northwest territories are such that if the settler sticks to mixed farming, and is careful and industrious he is sure of a living from the start and after a few years will find himself a farmer in independent circumstances.

The migratory movement, growing out of this increasing appreciation of Canadian territories, is causing consternation in the extensive regions affected on the other side of the line, and will eventually not only bring back most of those who have mistakenly left Canada for those sections of the republic, but must bring many others in their train, to share in our superior and superabundant natural riches.

According to the cable dispatches Deeming's conduct immediately before his death went farther to prove that the man was a lunatic than all the incoherent speeches by him at and since the trial. In Australia, however, people seem to take little stock in this order of criminal lunacy, which is much esteemed for the purposes of so-called scientific investigations elsewhere. The world perhaps would have felt better had this man confessed all, exactly as popular feeling had expected he would confess. His life is now closed, but Jack the Ripper's ghost will continue to stalk around waiting for further entanglements. The Australian authorities did their duty fully and faithfully. If Deeming preferred to be hanged for one murder rather than several it does not matter much from the utilitarian point of view. Whether he died a madman or a penitent criminal is not likely to concern modern civilization. Sensationalism is placed at a discount distinctly by the murderer's incomprehensible actions.

KINROSS, May 27.—The train bearing the remains of Sir Alex. Campbell, late lieutenant-governor of Ontario, arrived from Toronto at 3 o'clock this morning. Notwithstanding the early hour, a large number of citizens were at the station to receive the body. The casket was borne into the city hall and placed under a catafalque, where, surrounded by a guard from "A" battery of artillery, it lay in state until the hour fixed for the starting of the funeral procession. While it thus lay thousands of persons took the opportunity of taking a last view of the face of the deceased. Business was suspended as the lengthy procession passed through the city to Cataract cemetery.

OTTAWA, May 27.—In introducing the bill to amend the Dominion Lands Act in the house this afternoon Hon. Mr. Dawdney said that clause 17 of the old act is repealed because it is found impracticable, or at all events exceedingly inconvenient, to lay out territory in blocks of four townships each, and as a matter of fact a strict compliance with the provision of the act has never been found practicable.

Clause 3 strikes out the words "or hereafter obtains" in the original act, because the pre-emption privileges have been abolished, and adds a provision that a settler may on option reside on his first homestead while retaining the patent for a second homestead, provided such second homestead adjoins the first. He must, however, cultivate a substantial area on the second homestead.

Clause 4 extends the time for homesteading from June 2nd, 1887, to June 2nd, 1892. As the law now stands those who did not comply with the conditions of their entry before June 2nd, 1887, are not entitled to another entry, and it has been contended that this is unfair to those who had homesteaded entries in 1887, when second homesteading was abolished and who, although they complied with the homestead duties after the date mentioned, were induced to settle in the country on the strength of a second homestead provision. The government had never admitted that this argument had good foundation in law, but the extent to which homesteaders have been availing themselves of the second homestead privileges is so limited and in order that every cause of dissatisfaction may be removed the new clause was proposed.

GENERAL NEWS.

Toronto, May 26.—The Globe's London cables say: Canada's share of the birthday honors evokes a little criticism of the president, through the Fall Mail, but the criticism that Wiggles, who is on the prime minister, is a nation's pride in the prime minister of Canada is made light. In Canada there is no opinion in any time expressed that Sir Oliver Mowat well deserves knighthood. The day was it and it was not received before. The Canadian to vote says the dignity conferred on the premier of Ontario was earned long years ago and devoted public service be the least of merit.

Toronto, May 26.—The Huron ship and railway company was organized yesterday at a meeting of promoters at the project. David Barr was elected managing director with power to open negotiations with capitalists and to make any arrangements with them that would insure a speedy beginning of work of construction.

Toronto, May 26.—About four carloads of emigrants left last night for the west. They were chiefly of Swedes, Poles and Russians. Some were bound for the Mackinac but the greater part were going right through to seek subsistence in the western prairies.

London, May 25.—A morning paper publishes a story that Wm. Henry Haubert has been removed as a lay brother in a reformed monastery in Rome. The paper adds that he will not be admitted to the priesthood. He had disappeared from New York last year while English detectives were seeking to arrest him on a charge of perjury during the trial of a suit brought against him by Gladys Evelyn for seduction and breach of promise.

London, May 25.—The only tender received for the proposed Azores cable is one submitted by the French company. England has for a long time protested against Portugal's treatment of the British company which refuses to withdraw its deposit of £5,000 lodged as a guarantee.

Copenhagen, May 26.—This being the fiftieth anniversary of King Christian and Queen Louise, of Denmark, the celebrations reaching its culminating point. Copenhagen is a mass of decorations. Arches, flags and flowers are everywhere and crowds of people are out in holiday attire. The bells are ringing and salutes are being fired from every point, while the capital presents an aspect of militarism that is very unusual in Denmark. There will be a splendid display of fireworks this morning by the corporation of Copenhagen and a general illumination of public and private dwellings. Besides the public celebration fete are being given by members of the Danish nobility, foreign ambassadors and other great men. The festivities will be continued over the next two days. Tomorrow the king will receive more deputations, and Prince Waldemar will give a grand dinner party at night. On Saturday the festival of the university will take place. The king received today an intimate address enclosed in a golden basket from the Danish community in London.

London, May 26.—A conference of the Protestants and Anglicans was held at Exeter hall today. The Dean of Achonry, Ireland, presided. A number of speakers were made with the "Protestantism in the face of Romanism" was denounced. The Dean of Achonry declared that as a Protestant, he had no objection to it being religion, not least that called the doctrine of Romanism. He declared that wherever Romanism advanced it brought disaster. Romanism, he added, made slaves while Protestantism made men. The manager of the Queen's ship building works at Belfast and superintendent of harbor police, declared that they are totally ignorant of any rioting there Sunday last or since. A story was circulated stating that the men employed became involved in a quarrel over the home rule question; that the Protestants attacked the Catholics routing the latter. This is positively denied.

Carlsruhe, May 24.—After a long drawn out winter and some slight disappointing spring time, the weather seems to have settled to something like what the season needs, and everything at the present looks promising enough. New York, May 25.—Secretary Blaine and wife took breakfast in the public dining room of the Fifth Avenue hotel at 8 o'clock this morning. After breakfast the secretary and his wife returned to their rooms and, although many cars were sent up, no one was permitted to see Blaine. One exception however, ex-governor Ames, of Massachusetts was the only person to whom the secretary accorded an interview. After a talk with Mr. Blaine, the ex-governor was seen by a reporter of the United Press to whom he said: "Blaine will accept no more interviews, there is no longer any question about it."

Roumont, N. Y., May 25.—A thrilling scene was witnessed at Roumont, Ontario, yesterday. A young man from Philadelphia, who refused to give his name but was interested in a photograph went sailing on the Walkin creek. His little craft got into the current and its occupant losing all control of it drifted helplessly toward the falls at Roumont. Just as the boat reached the falls, the man gave a jump over the falls clearing the rocks below and striking deep water.

Wellington, N. Z., May 27.—Wellington was struck by a terrific cyclonic evening and the entire northern portion of the city destroyed. About fifty people were killed and 125 injured, but the confusion is so great that the exact loss of life cannot be stated definitely tonight. The Wellington hotel and Phillips house, the two largest hotels in the city were completely wrecked. The ruins of the Phillips house took fire and, doubtless, many of the guests perished there.
